

CELEBRATING THE BIRTH OF CHRIST

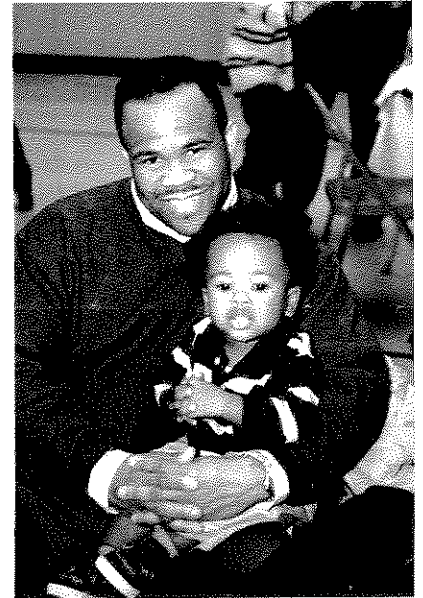

Above: A praise dancer from the First Pentecostal Prayer of Faith Church entertains the families

The First Pentecostal Prayer of Faith Church of Lambertville, N.J., under Bishop Arthur C. Naylor, held a wonderful Christmas banquet for the families of Doorway To Hope on December 23, 2009. The banquet included delicious food that was served by volunteer waiters to the families, as well as entertainment by the church's praise dance group, the men's chorus and a delightful puppet show for the children. All of the children also received a gift. The banquet was skillfully prepared and everyone in attendance had a wonderful time. We are very grateful to the members of the First Pentecostal Prayer of Faith Church for their hard work and generosity that made this such a successful event for our families.

Left: A child looks with wide-eyed wonder as gifts are delivered.

Left: Ephan Scarlett carries some of the delicious food that was prepared for the families of Doorway to Hope to the waiting guests at the banquet.

Right: Mr. Rueben Christie, a member of the church, with son, Preston, participate in the Christmas Spirit.

Below: The men's chorus performance was enjoyed by all in attendance.

For unto us a child is born, unto us a Son is given

Isaiah 9:6

